CAUSE

The offender was sentenced on April 21, 2014, and was ordered to pay $44,000 in restitution, in monthly installments of no less than $300. Over the course of supervision the offender has struggled to maintain full time, gainful employment. Subsequently, he has been unable to afford the monthly installment plan set by the Court. Over the course of supervision, the offender has only paid $1,925 towards restitution. However, the offender has recently secured full time employment. His monthly cash flow has been reviewed and it is believed the offender can now comfortably afford to pay the monthly installments of $300. It is requested the offender's term of supervision be extended one year in order for the probation office to continue to monitor the collection of restitution.

Respectfully submitted,
